What we want to Communicate

Parents to identify which parenting principles are biblical and which is not. This will set the strong foundational basis for parenting, teaching them to love God, to obey His Commands and the practical ways of doing it.

Parenthood Series

Contents:

- Understanding Parents Responsibility - will help parents to adopt the right perspective of being a parent. Understanding the Nurture and Admonition of the Lord.
- Understanding your Child's Greatest Needs - will help parents recognize true potentials of their children and the need for their regeneration when they grow up.
- Teaching Your Children the Whole Counsel of God - will equip parents ways how to minister to their children and share the Word of God.
- Teaching Your Children Obedience – will provide ways to teach their children obedience and deal with their natural tendencies to rebel.
- The Importance of Discipline – will give parents practical ways of disciplining their children based on the Word of God.

Alternative Contents:

- What's our aim as parents?- this stresses that our ultimate goal is to teach our kids to love God with all our heart, mind and soul (Deut. 6:4-9) this will cover point 1 & 2 of the first content. The goal is to set them up for eternal and not just temporal success.
- How should we teach?- this reveals the best manner of teaching that parents need to do- model the talk even when it seems difficult and unfair (Genesis 22:2-12).
- How to keep the bond?- this message will share the 3 key things that Mark 10:13-16 reveals as critical things to develop if you are to maintain your influence with your kids as they grow up- loving touch, abundant time & encouraging talk. It can also cover the flow of discipline from discipline, training, coaching and empowerment.

Believer or Follower

5-Jul Being a Disciple- bro. Roger Marcos

12-Jul Making Disciple- bro. Roger Marcos

What we want to communicate

There is a huge difference between a believer and a follower. Sadly, majority of us believes but only a few followed. This series calls for believers to become true followers of Jesus.
